The Palace, Mysore,

4th August 1920.

Dear Mr. Krumbiegel,

I have been privately urged from Bangalore to give you a hint to make yourself scarce at the coming Horse show. A good many Britishers in Bangalore objected to your name appearing in the Prospectus of the Show, I am told. I don't think you stand to lose anything by lying low for some time longer, and I should advise you to do so in your own interests. I know you will quite understand and appreciate my writing to you thus.

Yours sincerely,

JM
